If such provision is incorporated it shall have the same force and effect as if set out in full in title III or this title.”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California [Mr. GALLEGLY] and the gentleman from American Samoa [Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA] will each be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. GALLEGLY].

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. GALLEGLY asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, H.R. 2726 contains 19 sections which I will try to summarize briefly.

The first 11 sections make various technical corrections to existing Indian-related statutes. Typographical errors are corrected, words are capitalized, and so forth.

Section 12 modifies the service area of the Ponca Indian Tribe to include Indians living in certain counties near its reservation;

Section 13 accepts the surrender of an unused tribal charter of incorporation;

Section 14 extends the term of the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy;

Section 15 grants authority to the Army Corps of Engineers to provide funding to the Department of the Interior for the operation and maintenance of certain in lieu fishing access sites which have been constructed;

Section 16 provides authority to the Ponca Indian Tribe to utilize funds to acquire, develop, and maintain a transitional living facility for Indian adolescents;

Section 17 provides authority to the Secretary of the Interior to reprogram certain funds, awarded to the Mescalero Apache Tribe, as requested by the Tribe;

Section 18 provides to the Lac Vieux Desert Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians authority to amend its base membership roll; and

Section 19 amends the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act to provide that participating tribes may elect to include, in Title III and Title IV Self-Governance compacts, any or all provisions of Title I, which deals with Public Law 93-638 contracts.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, let me point out that the other body has passed and sent to us legislation quite similar to H.R. 2726. The Committee on Resources marked up and reported H.R. 2726 to the floor by unanimous vote.

I recommend a favorable vote on H.R. 2726.

Mr. Speaker. I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. FALEMOVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. FALEMOVAEGA asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FALEMOVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, again in the spirit of bipartisanship, I commend my good friend, the gentleman from California [Mr. GALLEGLY], chairman of the subcommittee, for bringing this bill to the floor.

Mr. Speaker, the bill before us today, H.R. 2726, contains 19 technical amendments that, for the most part, correct grammatical oversights or incorrect statutory references in Indian-related laws.

I would like to note two of the changes made by this bill. The first, contained in section 19, will make it easier for Indian tribes to carry out Self-Governance compacts under the Indian Self-Determination Act. Mr. Speaker, the Indian Self-Determination Act is one of the most important acts passed by Congress for Indians and has enabled tribes to carry out governmental activities and become more self-sufficient. The second change is contained in section 14, which extends by 18 months the life of the Advisory Council of California Indian Policy, a body created through legislation sponsored by the ranking member of the Committee on Resources, the gentleman from California, GEORGE MILLER.

I would like to commend my colleague, Chairman GALLEGLY and his staff for their work on this bill. I have always been proud of the fact that both sides of our committee have always worked together on Indian issues. I am sure that we will continue to do so in the future.

The Self-Governance amendment, which has been requested and is supported by the Indian tribes, would correct an oversight in last year's amendments to the Self-Governance program.

Last year, Congress chose to respond to the six-year resistance of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Indian Health Service to streamlining the “638” contracting process by amending the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act. The 1994 amendments further streamlining the “638” contracting and made permanent the Self-Governance program. The 1994 amendments also required the agencies to negotiate new regulations by mid 1996 with the Indian tribes to carry out the amendments.

Since the passage of the 1994 Amendments, however, the Departments of the Interior and Health and Human Services have not interpreted and implemented all portions of the Act in accordance with Congressional intent.

Specifically, the two departments have taken the position that certain beneficial provisions of Title I, governing Self-Determination or “638” contracts, may not be included in Title III or IV Self-Governance compacts and annual funding agreements. In addition, the position of the two departments has not always been consistent, so that in certain instances, one department has permitted inclusion of a Self-Governance clause reflective of a Title I provision while the other has not.

Mr. Speaker, the result has been an inconsistent treatment of Self-Governance issues by the two Departments, and the denial to Self-Governance tribes of the substantial advantages afforded to the tribes under Title I of the Indian Self-Determination Act. This is troubling, since it has always been the intent of Congress that the Self-Governance initiative should be at least as broad and favorable to the tribes as the original Title I contracting mechanism.

The amendment, which has been requested by the tribes and is supported by them, would allow tribes to incorporate the beneficial provisions of Title I of the Indian Self-Determination Act into Self-Governance compacts.

Mr. Speaker, the amendment allows Self-Governance tribes to take advantage of the benefits extended to 638 contracting tribes. These advantages include—the ability to prepare annual audits pursuant to the Single Audit Act, using Indian preference in hiring, carryover prior year funding, coverage under the Federal Tort Claims Act, access to technical assistance grants, access to federal sources of supply, affords comparable rental rates for housing in Alaska, incorporation of 638 contract support cost provisions, protections against agency funding reductions, use of more flexible cost accounting procedures, incorporation of title I contract disputes procedures, limitation of costs provisions, applicability of Prompt Payment Act, authority to acquire excess Federal property, access to GSA screener IDs, use of interagency motor pool vehicles, and the Federal Tort Claims Act.

The Government (basically IHS counsel) has taken the position that Congress did not apply these provisions in title I explicitly enough to titles III and IV. The Congress and the tribes disagree, but since the IHS has no real objection to them actually applying a technical amendment seemed like the proper thing to do.

I want to commend the committee staff members on both sides of the aisle for this hard work.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

In conclusion, I would just like to again thank my good friend, the gentleman from American Samoa [Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA]. I think today is a real testimony on both of the bills we have brought to the floor as to how well we have worked together in a bipartisan way. In fact it appears that about the most controversial problems we have had is the way we pronounce each other's last name.

Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. GALLEGLY. I yield to the gentleman from American Samoa.

Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, I would like to note the gentleman's remarks. It is true that it seems as if some of our colleagues have always had a very difficult time in pronouncing our names, but in spite of all of that, I think more importantly to commend the gentleman again in bringing this kind of legislation in a spirit of bipartisanship that I sure hope that in the coming weeks and months perhaps our other colleagues could better exemplify the true spirit of how legislation could be passed, in the spirit of cooperation, and the spirit of resolving the problems and not be part of the problem.

Again I commend my good friend from California for bringing this bill. I hope we will continue to pass more legislation in the same spirit as we have done in these two pieces of legislation. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. GALLEGLY. I thank the gentleman for his kind comments. Perhaps the gentleman from American Samoa [Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA] and I should hold some seminars. Maybe this body would work a lot better.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. GALLEGLY] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2726, as amended.

The question was taken.

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5, rule I, and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.
